Based in North Devon, Lara and Tony established Casa Cocina to bring innovative and creative food to all types of event, from special occasion buffets to the finest wedding breakfast.

Casa Cocina also specialise in cooking for visiting parties at their holiday lets. Whether a picnic, special barbecue, buffet or a celebration sit down dinner.

Everything will be customised to your exact requirements with ingredients mainly sourced from local farms, producers and merchants.

Our food

These are some of our recent commissions which embody our approach to food:

- An Arabian influenced meal cooked at a holiday home for 12 guests.
- A Kitsch style wedding breakfast with prawn cocktail, pork tenderloin and classic trifle.
- Lunch platter for 30 holiday guests showcasing the best of Devon produce.
- Mexican themed buffet for 150 people made with local produce combined with authentic Mexican herbs, spices and grains.

Let us create your perfect menu.
